

FUNSTON MEETS MEXICAN LEADER

LONG CONFERENCE HELD WITH OBREGON.

Washington to Act—Major General Will Forward All Facts Told Him in Randall's Case.

Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 28.—Maj. Gen. Frederick Funston conferred at length today with Gen. Alvaro Obregon, the Carranza commander, whose forces occupied Nogales, Sonora, last Friday. Gen. Obregon had requested the extradition of Carlos Randall, until last Thursday night acting governor of Sonora.

After the conference Gen. Funston said he would forward to Washington all the facts laid before him regarding Randall, who crossed to the American side before the Carranza forces took Nogales.

Gen. Obregon's request today that he be allowed to transfer 110 wounded soldiers to Nogales, Sonora, was promptly complied with. Hospital facilities had been provided, Gen. Obregon said.

Gen. Obregon announced that he would leave tomorrow with most of his troops to join Gen. Martinez, pursuing Villa forces believed to be on their way to Hermosillo.

United States cavalrymen on guard duty to the east reported that they were fired on early today by a small band of mounted men. Their shots were wild and the Americans did not return the fire.

The bodies of 25 Villa soldiers and civilian adherents were found by the Carranza forces when they occupied Nogales, Sonora, according to a statement issued by Gen. Obregon today. He said a captain and four troopers of the Carranza forces were killed when the Twelfth infantry replied to the fire which the men under Gen. Carbenas directed against the Americans.

Three hundred Villa soldiers captured at Tugelos, Sonora, were put to work clearing up the town and repairing the railroad.

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR, SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

25-cent Bottle Destroys Dandruff and Doubles Beauty of Your Hair.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. BETHEA INVITED

BY HENRY FORD.

Andrew J. Bethea, Lieutenant governor, yesterday received a telegram from Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, inviting him to represent South Carolina on the peace commission which is to go to Europe next Saturday. Mr. Bethea has not replied to the invitation, but has the matter under consideration.

The peace commission will sail from New York on board the Oscar II of the Scandinavian-American line, going to Christiania, Stockholm and Copenhagen. Prominent persons of European nations are to meet the peace commission from this country at some central point to be established and hold an international conference looking to a settlement of the European war. The American commission is to include about 100 prominent men and women from different parts of the United States. Mr. Ford last week invited Gov. Manning, who, because of official business, was forced to decline.

Among those who have accepted membership on the American commission are John Wannamaker, Thomas A. Edison, Jane Addams, Helen Keller and Frederic C. Howe, commissioner of immigration.—The State.

CARNIVAL TRAIN WRECKED IN HEAD-ON COLLISION.

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 22.—The bodies of six persons had been recovered tonight, 12 others were missing and more than 30 injured as a result of a head-on collision six miles west of here late today between Central of Georgia passenger train No. 2 and a special train of 28 cars carrying the Con T. Kennedy Carnival company. It was feared that the bodies of some of the missing might be under the overturned cars of the show train. Twelve of the carnival company's cars were reported destroyed by fire and others still are burning tonight. Two of the cars containing trained animals were destroyed and most of the animals were burned to death. The company carried a lion, two bears, six camels and a number of horses and dogs.

SANTUC

Santuc, Nov. 29.—Mr. Jas. Moss of Asheville, N. C., and Mr. Frank Moss of Green Mountain, N. C., spent a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moss.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Jeter went to Greenville on Thanksgiving Day to see their children who are in Furman and the College for Women.

Mr. A. W. Gillmore went to Columbia on business last week and saw the movie, "The Birth of a Nation."

Mr. W. D. Speffs has been transferred from this station as railroad agent and Mr. Bolin, from Columbia, is now the agent.

Thanksgiving Day was quiet. Some "took it" because of a chronic habit of quitting work on every known holiday.

Last Friday night at the school building here Prof. Reid Smith, of the University of South Carolina, addressed an audience on "Community Development." All who heard it said it was just to the point. He has a good voice and was very plain. He showed that as no one could live to himself no community, city, village or "burg" could live by itself. That it is the duty of every one to help some one, to cheer him, or her, in anything for good, to do, to help improve and develop a community. That among the several drawbacks to community development that of indifference is the worst, the most to be dreaded, etc. The length of his address was 45 minutes.

There were not so many out as I expected to see. For quite a number of years I have heard the complaint that this community needed development, needed improvement, that there was too much indifference.

There has been quite an amount of rain during November, 3.77 in., and grain sowing has been retarded. There is not near enough being sown. Many are not through. I begin to fear that there is not going to be much wheat sown this year as last. Some who sowed last year, a few, I hear, will not sow again this year. They made a failure. They made a failure this year on cotton, making four to five bales per horse and the cropper to get half, the guano merchant to get part, and in some cases, the land owner to get part. Will they plant cotton next year? I have heard of a few farmers who said they would not sow any, because cotton was too high a price to sacrifice land to wheat. More are that way, but they are no country builders, are poor ones to follow unless you are having for gas.

Hogs are still dying, as some are losing hogs, very likely from cholera and it is rumored that someone buried very carelessly. The small shoats and pigs that I am interested in, we have been very careful about. We have tried to keep them isolated from any others, threatened to quarantine dogs and ourselves would not go near the sick hogs, and told the hands on the place to not go near them in order that no germ might be brought back to the farm, yet we lost just today a seven week's old pig, after all the precaution we had taken, and it may have died from cholera, but I hope not. Nevertheless we put that little thing four feet deep in the ground. Will that do? As for myself, I am going to be very careful not to help spread the disease in anyway.

A man said something about the Sunday running of freight trains, about the loop holes the legislature leaves or creates for the chronic lawbreakers to creep out through, etc. Well, it does seem so. In the case of the railroads, every Sunday the regular daily through freight trains pass through here, and every other town on the line, I guess, and the only difference on that day and the regular week-day is a white flag on the engine. This is, no doubt, the loop hole, that they withhold the regular train number and call it an extra. A train of coal, box cars, a string of empties and, perhaps, a crate of fruit or vegetables, etc., for perishable freight. If I would hitch up my wagon, go down to the field for a load of stuff, or hire it out, the community would be "horrid" and dub me a nuisance, and turn about to put a stop to my doings.

Christmas is coming and how will we celebrate the day—the Savior's birthday? Some will do so in a way wholly depraved when you measure it up by what should be on such an event as Christ's birthday. Circulars are now coming to the postoffice, thick, I get many, some saying, "Order your Christmas liquor early." "Time you were thinking of your Christmas order," "No doubt you will want some liquor," etc. Yes, and some people will be almost crazy for "Christmas liquor." Even some church members will talk of their "Christmas sacrament." It is almost blasphemy. It is sacrilegious to debauch that day with drinking. The day of days that they should not. Many will worship their "Christmas liquor" or dram, or egg-nog more than they will their Savior on that day. It is a shame. Why cannot we be clean on Christmas times? Hey Denver.

CALLS ON MILITIA TO ENFORCE LAWS.

Governor of Louisiana Declares That Disregard of State Statutes Must Cease.

New Orleans, Nov. 28.—Declaring that disregard for the State laws must come to an end in Jefferson parish, Gov. L. E. Hall announced here tonight that he had ordered the Bogalusa company of the Louisiana National Guard held in its quarters to await further orders, Adj. Gen. McNeese will meet Gov. Hall here tomorrow, it was said, and confer with him. The governor declined to state whether he would proclaim martial law.

'TIS A SAD STORY, MATES.

A bachelor I, and you question why. And you look at me wroth askance, And I know what you blame, 'cause I don't share my name, And like other chaps, go take chance. But hark to the plea of most miserable me, Of course I've earned not a jot— For the girls that would marry me wouldn't marry And the ones that I would—would not.

There were Mabel, and May—and what could I say? For I loved to distraction Elaine, But she didn't care, and oh, she was fair, And so were Belle, Mollie and Jan, Then Nan and Babette, I will never forget,

By far they were best of the lot, But the girls that would marry me wouldn't marry, And the ones that I would—would not.

I would take your advice, and be hitched in a trice, But what is a beggar to do When he loves Guinevere in a manner, Well, that's clear, I'm bored by the worship of Lou?

Of blame I deserve not a jot— But the girls that would marry me I would not marry, And the ones that I would—would not.

—Edmund Leamy, in New York Evening Sun.

ALL CHILDREN LOVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give It When Feverish, Cross, Bilious, For Bad Breath or Sour Stomach.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

A detachment of State troops yesterday, upon order of the governor, raided an alleged lottery shop in Southport and arrested about 60 alleged employers and patrons. The proprietors and employees were released on bond. The patrons were photographed for purposes of identification and released upon giving their names to the sheriff. They will be summoned as witnesses. Yesterday's raid in Southport was the second made there by State troops within the last three months. Of more than 100 persons taken in the first raid only 13 were brought to trial and these recently were acquitted because no witnesses could be located, as they all had given fictitious names.

Gov. Hall in explaining the previous raid stated that he had been forced to call upon the State troops because the parish authorities had failed to enforce the laws.
